NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2020

1. CORPORATE INFORMATION

The financial statements of Adopt Change Ltd for the year ended 30 June 2020 were authorised for issue in accordance with a resolution of the directors on _____.

The Company is a not-for-profit unlisted public Company Limited by Guarantee, a registered charity with the ACNC, and is incorporated and domiciled in Australia.

2. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES a)

Basis of Preparation

These general purpose financial statements have been prepared in accordance with requirements of the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012, and Australian Accounting Standards - Reduced Disclosure Requirements

The financial statements have been prepared on an accruals basis and is based on historical costs.

The financial statements are presented in Australian dollars which is the Company' s functional and presentational currency.

The principal accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

b) Significant Accounting Judgements & Estimates

When preparing the financial statements, management undertakes a number of judgements, estimates and assumptions about the recognition and measurement of assets, liabilities, income and expenses.

There are no estimates or judgements which have risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

c) Income

Income comprises revenue from grants, fundraising activities and funded service project revenue.

Income is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable and is presented net of returns, discounts and rebates.

Income is recognized when the amount of the revenue can be measured reliably, it is probable that economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the entity and specific criteria relating to the type of revenue as noted below, has been satisfied.

Grant Revenue

Grant revenue is recognised in the Statement of Comprehensive Income when the entity obtains control of the grant, it is probably that the economic benefits gained from the grant will flow to the entity and the amount of the grant can be measured reliably.

When grant revenue is received whereby the entity incurs an obligation to deliver economic value directly back to the contributor, this is considered a reciprocal transaction and the grant revenue is recognised in the Statement of Financial Position as a liability until the service has been delivered to the contributor, otherwise the grant is recognised as income on receipt.

Funded Service Project Revenue

Funded Service Project revenue is recognised in the Statement of Comprehensive Income when the entity obtains control of the service funds, it is probably that the economic benefits gained from the service funds will flow to the entity and the amount of the service funds can be measured reliably.

When service funds are received whereby the entity incurs an obligation to deliver economic value directly back to the contributor, this is considered a reciprocal transaction and the funded service project revenue is recognised in the Statement of Financial Position as a liability until the service has been delivered to the contributor. otherwise the service funds are recognised as income on receipt.

Fundraising Activities

Fundraising activities include the conducting of conferences, fundraising events, sale of merchandise and sponsorship for events. Funds collected from fundraising are recognised as revenue when the Company gains control, economic benefits are probable, and the amount of the fundraising monies can be measured reliably.

d) Income Tax

The Company is exempt from income tax pursuant to the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997. Accordingly, Australian Accounting Standard AASB 112 Income Taxes has not been applied and no provision for income tax has been included in the Accounts.

e) Goods & Services Tax (GST)

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of GST, except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the Australian Taxation Office. In these circumstances, the GST is recognised as part of the cost of purchase of the asset or as part of the expense.

Cash flows are presented in the Statement of Cash Flows on a gross basis, except for the GST component of investing and financing activities, which are classified as operating cash flows.

f) Cash & Cash Equivalents

Cash and Cash Equivalents includes Cash at Bank.

For the purposes of the Statement of Cash Flows, Cash and Cash Equivalents consist of Cash and Cash Equivalents as defined above.

g) Property, Plant & Equipment

Property, Plant and equipment that have been contributed at no cost, or for nominal cost are valued and recognised at the fair value of the asset at the date it is acquired.

The cost model is used. The asset is carried at its cost less any accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses. Costs include purchase price, other directly attributable costs and the initial estimate of the costs of dismantling and restoring the asset where applicable.

The depreciable amount of all fixed assets, excluding freehold land, is depreciated on a reducing balance basis over the assets useful life to Adopt Change Limited commencing from the time the asset is held ready for use. The useful lives used for each class of depreciable assets are shown below:

Office Equipment (purchased pre 1 July 2017)	6	Years
Office Equipment (purchased post 1 July 2017)	1	Year
Furniture	1	Year
Right-of-use Assets		over lease term

At the end of each annual reporting period, the depreciation method, useful life and residual value of each asset is reviewed. Any revisions are accounted for prospectively as a change in estimate.

When an asset is disposed, the gain or loss is calculated by comparing proceeds received with its carrying amount and is taken to profit or loss.

h) Impairment

The carrying values of property, plant and equipment are reviewed for impairment at each reporting date, with recoverable amounts being estimated when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may be impaired.

An impairment loss exists when the carrying value of an asset exceeds its estimated recoverable amount. The asset is then written down to its recoverable amount. Impairment losses are recognised in the profit and loss section of the Statement of Comprehensive Income.

i) Employee Entitlements

Liabilities for employee benefits for wages, salaries that are expected to be settled within 12 months of the reporting date representing present obligations resulting from employees' services provided to reporting date, are calculated at undiscounted amounts based on remuneration wage and salary rates that the association expects to pay as at reporting date including related on-costs.

Non-accumulating non-monetary benefits, such as sick leave, are expensed based on the net marginal cost to the Company as the benefits are taken up by the employees.

Contributions made by the company to employee superannuation funds are charged as expenses when incurred.

j) Leases

Where the Company is a lessee, the rights of use and obligations are initially recognised as assets and liabilities. The lease liability is initially measured at the present value of the lease payments over the lease term. The right-of-use asset is initially measured at the amount of the lease liability plus any direct costs incurred and are depreciated over the lease term.

k) Income Received in Advance

The liability for deferred income is the unutilised amounts of service funds received on the condition that specified services are delivered or conditions are fulfilled.

l) Economic Dependence

The Company is dependent upon the ongoing receipt of Federal and State Government grants and community and corporate donations to ensure the ongoing continuance of its programs. At the date of this report, management has no reason to believe that this financial support will not continue.

m) Provisions

Provisions are measured at the estimated expenditure required to settle the present obligation, based on the most reliable evidence available at the reporting date, including the risks and uncertainties associated with the present obligation. Where there are number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. Provisions are discounted to their present values, where the time value of money is material.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

231 Wardell Road
Dulwich Hill
NSW 2203

Opinion

We have audited the financial report of Adopt Change Limited (the Company), which comprises the statement of financial position as at 30 June 2020, the statement of comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity and statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including significant accounting policies, and the directors' declaration.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial report of Adopt Change Limited, is in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001, including:

- giving a true and fair view of the Company's financial position as 30 June 2020, and of its financial performance for the year then ended; and
- complying with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Regulations 2001.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the auditor independence requirements of the Corporations Act 2001 and the ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board's APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the Code) that are relevant to our audit of the financial report in Australia. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code.

We confirm that the independence declaration required by the Corporations Act 2001, which has been given to the directors of the Company would be in the same terms if given to the directors as at the same time of this auditor's report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of the Directors for the Financial Report

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Act 2001 and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial report, the directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of the users taken on the basis of this financial report.
